Re: Dean/Weiler v. Raytheon Company, et. al.
 Civil Action No. 1:05CV10155
 Plaintiff's animation

Dear Mike:

In response to your reply memorandum, we are working on an animation. It is not yet completed. We will decide whether to use the animation, and make it available to you, at least 4 weeks prior to trial. We suggest that Raytheon wait until that time to see if we are going to use an animation. If we decide to use it, we will at that time give them the name of any expert that we would use to authenticate it, and give them the opportunity to take discovery from that expert.

This agreement would be without prejudice to Raytheon's right to file a motion to strike or otherwise preclude the animation at a later time.

Sincerely,

Mary Schiavo
